

Crosslake Communications Internet Service Agreement

Read This Internet Service Agreement Carefully Before Using Our Internet Services.

1. INTRODUCTION.

Crosslake Communications, Inc. provides its Internet services, as they may exist from time to time, ("Services") to all end users who access some of our Services but do not have accounts ("Visitors") as well as those who pay a monthly service fee to subscribe to the Services ("Users"). By using the Services or by establishing an account, you agree to be bound by this Agreement and to use the Services in compliance with this Agreement, our Acceptable Use Policy and other user policies.

If you do not agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including any future revisions, you may not use the Services, and if you are a current User, you must terminate your use of the Services under Section 10.

2. SUBSCRIPTION REQUIREMENTS.

Users must be at least 18 years old. Local access dial-up numbers may not be available in all areas. You are solely responsible for determining if use of a particular dial-up number will cause you to incur long-distance, toll, or other charges. Crosslake Communications is not responsible for any long-distance, toll or other telecommunications charges you incur. Toll-free (800 #) and international access costs are extra. Current prices for Crosslake Communications Services are posted throughout our Web site at <http://www.crosslake.net>. These rates may also be obtained by calling (800) 992-8220. Crosslake Communications reserves the right to change prices and institute new fees at any time upon 30 days prior notice.

3. PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS OF A MEMBER.

(a) Users must (i) provide Crosslake Communications with accurate and complete billing information including legal name, address, telephone number, and credit card/billing information, and (ii) report to Crosslake Communications all changes to this information within thirty (30) days of the change. Users are responsible for all charges to their account.

(b) Users having questions regarding charges to an account, should contact Crosslake Communications Customer Service Department at (800) 992-8220. All charges are considered valid unless disputed in writing within sixty (60) days of the billing date. Adjustments will not be made for charges that are more than 60 days old.

(c) Charges are often billed to Users' credit cards or debit cards, as applicable, each month for the basic service and any additional usage or services. Crosslake Communications is not responsible for any charges or expenses (overdrawn accounts, exceeding credit card limits, etc.) resulting from charges billed by Crosslake Communications.

(d) If paying by check, payments are due within 30 days after the month in which the charges are incurred.

(e) If you pay for Services through a prepayment plan, automatic billing described above shall only apply to the charges not paid through the prepayment plan.

(f) If you purchase Services through a reseller who in turn pays Crosslake Communications, the reseller must pay all amounts owing for your account. If the reseller fails to pay Crosslake Communications any amounts due—whether or not you have paid the reseller—your account will be subject to suspension or cancellation until you or the reseller has paid all amounts due.

(g) Delinquent accounts may be suspended or canceled at Crosslake Communications sole discretion; however, charges will continue to accrue until the account is canceled. Crosslake Communications may bill an additional charge to reinstate a suspended account.

4. MEMBER'S ACCOUNT, PASSWORD, AND SECURITY.

Users receive a username, password and account designation upon registration. You and members of your household or business, if you have purchased a business account, are the only authorized users of your Crosslake Communications account and must comply with this Agreement. You must keep your password confidential so that no one else may access the Services through your account. You must notify Crosslake Communications within 24 hours of discovering any unauthorized use of your account.

Using a personal account for high volume or commercial use (e.g., revenue generation, advertising, etc.) is prohibited. Email accounts exceeding 30MB in size may, at Crosslake Communications discretion, be transferred to a compressed temporary file or storage. Crosslake Communications may delete the temporary file from the server 60 days after notifying you. Any free Web site exceeding 25MB may be suspended until the User brings the disk space usage under 25MB or less or additional megabytes are purchased. Any free Web site exceeding 250MB of traffic will be billed for excess traffic. You may establish a commercial or high-volume account by calling (800) 992-8220.

Usernames, passwords and email addresses are Crosslake Communications property and Crosslake Communications may alter or replace them at any time.

5. MONITORING THE SERVICES.

Crosslake Communications has no obligation to monitor the Services, but may do so and disclose information regarding use of the Services for any reason if Crosslake Communications, in its sole discretion, believes that it is reasonable to do so, including to: satisfy laws, regulations, or governmental or legal requests; operate the Services properly; or protect itself and its Users. Please see our Privacy Policy. Crosslake Communications may immediately remove your material or information from Crosslake Communications servers, in whole or in part, which Crosslake Communications, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines to infringe another's property rights or to violate our Acceptable Use Policy. Crosslake Communications reserves the right to monitor bandwidth usage of any circuit and bill overages based upon acceptable usage levels. 35 gigabytes (GB) per month is considered acceptable on a 1 megabit (Mb) connection. Overages are based on this amount and will be billed at $10 per GB per month over the allowed amount. All circuit speeds are based on this amount, for example a 5Mb circuit is allowed 5 times 35GB, or 175GB per month. In certain cases a circuit may be suspended or reduced in capacity if the allowed monthly bandwidth usage amount is exceeded.
